To Keep Waxed Paper.

Take two pieces of cardboard slightly larger than the paper, place together and paste a strip of cotton across one end to form a hinge; when dry place your sheets of waxed paper between the cover and sew through all with a stout cord, leaving a loop to i hang it up by. You will find this very convenient, as it takes up very little space, is out of the dust and is very handy to use, as all you have to to is to lift one sheet or as many as you wish to use without removing from
